The Journal of Value Inquiry

Contents of Volume 23

Volume 23, No. 1

Articles

M. Friedman, Friendship and moral growth 3

P. Redding, Haberma's theory of argumentation 15

S.L. Ross, What it is to be a pragmatist about evaluation 33

Discussions

G.H. Paske, Magic and morality: Remarks on Gewirth and Hare 51

D.L. Hatcher, Existential ethics and why it's immoral to be a housewife 59

J. Jacobs, Relativism, rationality and repression 69

Book Review

E. Pincoffs, Quandaries and virtues: Against reductivism in ethics (R. Paden) 79

Volume 23, No. 2

Articles

D.H. Rice, Critical individualism: Whitehead's metaphysics and critique of liberalism 85

N. Balzer, The logic of arithmetic 99

M. Urban Walker, What does the different voice say?: Gilligan's women and moral philosophy 123

M.H. Holmgren, The backward-looking component of weak retributivism 135

R.L. Armstrong, Two cheers for higher levels of consciousness 147

J.L. Johnson, Privacy and the judgment of others 157

Volume 23, No. 3

Articles

B. Barry, The ownership and distribution of the world's natural resources: A symposium 169

R.J. Arneson, Liberal egalitarianism and world resource distribution: Two views 171

J. Boyle, Natural law, ownership and the world's natural resources 191

T. Nardin, Realism and redistribution 209

A. Gilbert, Rights and resources 227

A. Kuflik, Allocation and ownership of world resources: A symposium overview 249

Volume 23, No. 4

Articles

J. van Brakel and B.A.C. Saunders, Moral and political implications of pragmatism 259

D.J. Detmer, Heidegger and Nietzsche on "thinking in values" 275

D.E. Schrader, Background rights and judicial decision 285

M. Smiley, Paternalism and democracy 299

C. McKinnon, Ways of wrong-doing, the vices, and cruelty 320